

*** P R E S S R E L E A S E *****

Members of the press are informed that on Saturday, January 21, 2017 at 11:00 in Geneva

☆ Democrats Abroad Switzerland ☆

will officially support the march in Geneva that has been organized in solidarity with the Women's March on Washington.

Many members of Democrats Abroad Switzerland wish to help send a powerful message promoting a world that respects the human and civil rights of all citizens.

The Geneva Women's March for Dignity is open to all women and men who share the values of equality, diversity, and inclusion, and who care about addressing the progressive agenda. Well over 1'200 have already registered to march, and many more are expected. Please see

<https://www.facebook.com/events/1806342649641818>

This march is a "Sister" of the Women's Marches taking place in 151 cities outside the U.S. in 58 countries as part of a viral movement. Please see <https://www.womensmarch.com/sisters>

Members of the press are encouraged to cover the march and speak with the participants. For the viewpoint of Democrats Abroad, representing the U.S. Democratic Party in Switzerland, please contact

Anne-Shelton Aaron
Chair, Democrats Abroad Switzerland
chair@democrats.ch

Looking forward to see you there!